

Judoka, Nick Kossor

Elite world class Judoka Nick Kossor provides participants with an introduction to the internationally renowned sport of Judo through a structured hands-on experience. Nick is a 2x National Champion, 7x National Medalist, 5x World Team Member, 4x Pan-Am Team Member ('13 Bronze), and has been ranked among the top 30 Judoka in his weight class world-wide. Although he qualifies, due to shoulder injury, Nick is unable to compete in the 2016 Olympic Games. He has 13 years of experience teaching judo to people of all ages, abilities, and mastery at a premier local community dojo. Nick has established himself at the Mohonasen High School & "Camp Abilities Saratoga" through his substance abuse prevention education and judo programs. Nick's objectives are to relay the importance of a healthy lifestyle, promote a respectable image in person and online, and share his lifelong passion of judo on a competitive level.

Check out these links of Nick teaching, competing, and giving an interview for CBS 6 Albany:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aBHK8vdNMBI>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Tgl7Jg1yA60>

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=M6_7UwytLe0

<http://cbs6albany.com/sports/content/beyond-the-games-nick-kossor>

Contact Gail Brown for a reference: gail.brown@voorpl.org

To contact Nick Kossor:

nkossor@yahoo.com

518-222-6396 (call or text)